

CCNY

CU
NY

MFA
CREATIVE WRITING

MFA IN CREATIVE WRITING
THE CITY COLLEGE OF NEW YORK

APR
3

Chai & Chat Reading Series

featuring

David Groff

Poet, Professor, Editor

Wednesday, April 10th, 2024

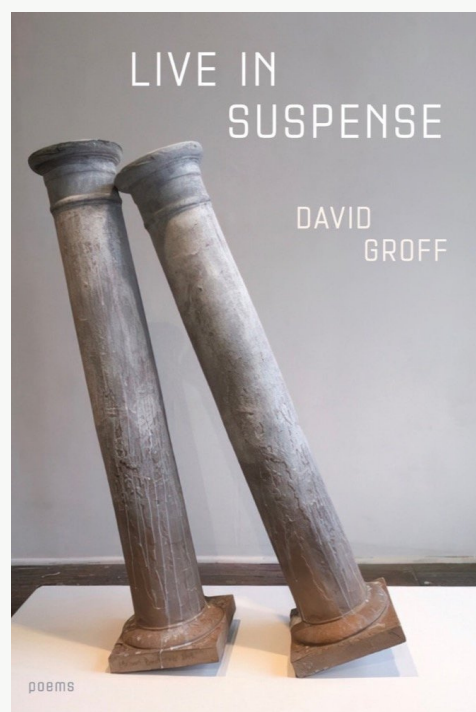

5:00–6:30PM

Rifkind Center, 6/316

NAC building

NEW DATE!

A reading and conversation to celebrate his new book Live in Suspense.

David Groff's third book of poems, Live in Suspense, was published in 2023 by Trio House Press. He has previously published Clay, winner of the Louise Bogan Award, and Theory of Devolution, selected for the National Poetry Series, both of which were finalists for the Lambda Literary Award. An independent book editor, he is a longtime guest professor in the MFA program at CCNY. His essays and poems have been widely published and anthologized. He is an activist and cultural worker who cofounded the Publishing Triangle and is a board member of Nightboat Books.

Sponsored by the Estate of Kenneth Kowald Fund for Advancing American Literature and the Rifkind Center

THE RIFKIND CENTER
FOR THE HUMANITIES AND ARTS AT THE CITY COLLEGE OF NEW YORK

Free and open to the public